bibliography tutorial

choose a topic and write it in the text box below:

topic: [_____]

now write your research question below:

research question: [_____]

write down in the box below what you know about the topic:

[text box]

now write what you don't know about the topic:

[text box]

lastly, note below if what you know about the topic comes from reliable sources:

[text box]

copy and paste the book citation generated into the box below:

book citation: [text box]

now, write a short paragraph explaining why you think you might want to use this source:

book annotation: [text box]

copy and paste the article citation in the box below:

article citation: [text box]

now write a short paragraph explaining why you want to use this article:

article annotation: [text box]

once you have your website citation, copy and paste it in the box below:

website citation: [text box]

now write a brief paragraph explaining why you want to us this website for your research below:

website annotation: [text box]